Cuba City defeated Ladysmith, 52-47, and Iowa-Grant defeated Wausaukee, 59-51, in the title games.

The Class A championship was declared vacant by the Board of Control after it was learned that Milwaukee Madison's roster included an ineligible player. Madison had defeated Wausau West, 77-60, in the final A Game.

Semifinal play saw Milwaukee Madison defeat Green Bay Preble, 64-51, and Wausau West defeat Plymouth, 64-53, in Class A while Cuba City defeated Shorewood, 61-44, and Ladysmith defeated Algoma, 56-52, in overtime in Class B and Iowa-Grant defeated Oostburg, 68-46, and Wausaukee defeated Washburn, 51-43, in Class C.

Class A quarterfinals saw these results: Milwaukee Madison over Madison West, 62-60, Wausau West over Cudahy, 57-49, Green Bay Preble over New Berlin Eisenhower, 49-44, and Plymouth over Fort Atkinson, 63-59.

Coached by Jerry Petitgoue, Cuba City succeeds Wautoma as B champion. It was Cuba City's first appearance in the State since 1949, its fifth trip overall, and its finish this year was one step better than the 1938 Class C runners-up. Iowa-Grant, coached by Steve Randall, follows Kohler as Class C champion. Iowa-Grant won its title in its first appearance at the State.

Spectacular records were not commonplace in this year's State Tournament field but the championship teams had impressive marks of 24-1 for Cuba City and 23-3 for Iowa-Grant. Washburn came into the tournament as the only unbeaten team with 24 wins.

Jim Gross of Wausau West with 58 points, John Tranel of Cuba City with 42 points and Craig Derouin of Wausaukee with 32 points led Class A, B and C scoring, respectively, in the State Tournament.
